Remarks

The original declaration or oath has not been filed herein. Accordingly, enclosed is the original declaration for this application.

Also enclosed are a Petition and Affidavit to change an inventor's name.

The May 29, 2007 Notice of Missing Requirements indicates that the translation is allegedly defective because the number of claims in the translation is different from the International Application. The translation and the International Application each have 15 claims. Copies of the translation, and the International Application are enclosed for the convenience of the Patent Office.

Since the number of claims in the translation is the same as the number of claims in the International Application, the undersigned attempted to resolve the matter by calling Examiner Smith on June 15, June 26, June 29, July 5, and July 18, 2007, but the messages left for Examiner Smith remain unanswered.

Applicants respectfully submit that the translation is not defective. If the above allegation concerning the alleged defect is maintained, clarification is respectfully requested.

Please charge our Deposit Account No. 50-1177 in the amount of $130.00 as prescribed by 37 C.F.R. § 1.492(h) for the surcharge and processing fee for filing a declaration on a date after commencement of the national stage. Order No. 07-0284.
